Nehemiah

WE ARE HIRING
Assistant Project Manager/Project Manager

Responsibilities

This is a senior position, for someone who has extensive experience in project management and implementation of construction projects. The candidate(s) would be in charge of several project teams across several projects over Malaysia and possibly overseas. Thus, we are looking for someone who is resilient, able to lead and motivate team members, possess good problem solving skills and is able thrive under pressure and ensure that projects are executed in a cost effective manner with the highest of quality.

- Liaise with client, main contractors, consultants, sub-contractors, etc to arrange all site work to proceed smoothly;

- To coordinate all subcontractor and labors so that all job site have sufficient resources;

- To lead teams of supervisor to supervise site progress and monitor work quality to ensure that all works are constructed according to specification;

- To attend site meeting, to prepare progress report, to resolve all site matters;

- Ensuring that there is optimum utilization of resources such as labor, material, machinery, so that the projects are implemented in the most cost effective manner with highest quality and meet the deadlines of the client;

Requirements

- Degree in Civil/Geotechnical Engineering or Construction/Building Management;

- With integrity who will uphold the company's values and carry out his job with honesty;

- Experience in the construction projects;-
    - Project Manager at least 8 years
    - Assistant Project Manager at least 5 years

- Experience with Specialist, Contractor and Sub-Contractor will be an added advantage;

- Self-motivated with good interpersonal and communication skills;

- Hardworking, fast learner and able to work under pressure;

- Able to work independently with minimum supervision and team player;

- Willing to travel (outstation) and reallocate;

- Able to start work immediately will be an added advantage;

For interested applicants:
send your cv/resume to career@nehemiahwalls.com